School Bus for Girls at Dahej

Non-availability of high schools in village Suva and Jolva leads to the drop-out of many girls after the primary education. To deal with this issue in the surrounding villages near the factory at Dahej, a bus facility has been extended for school children, especially girls, to commute from Suva & Jolva village to Dahej high school located 12 km away. This has improved the regularity and retention of girl students in the high schools as compared to the previous years. This facility will continue, on need basis, in the years to come.
